TEEN ALCOHOL AWARENESS PROGRAM (T.A.A.P)

"THEY WILL DRIVE
TOMORROW WITH WHAT THEY LEARN TODAY."

SAN DIEGO POLICE DEPARTMENT
CHIEF OF POLICE
SHELLEY ZIMMERMAN

As the Chief of Police for America's Finest City, I am pleased to present to you the San Diego Police Department's FY2017 Fourth Quarter Community Policing Report. This report highlights the many ways we collaborate with our community to set the national model for community policing.

Public Safety is a shared responsibility between our police officers, professional civilian staff, volunteers and the community whom we so proudly serve. Community policing provides the greatest opportunity for keeping our streets safe. Our community partnerships are essential for designing and implementing crime prevention strategies and problem solving measures. It is the police and the community working together to address crime fighting and quality of life issues that fosters the highest level of public trust and safety. This working relationship has helped San Diego keep its reputation as one of the safest large cities in the United States.

I am extremely proud of the men and women of the San Diego Police Department for the tremendous work they do each day. I am equally proud of our great citizens here in San Diego. Together we are making a positive difference in our city. This report illustrates all the hard work and community involvement our officers do every day. From our neighborhood watch meetings to our community walks, we are committed to working together with our community to ensure San Diego remains America's Finest City.

Shelley Zimmerman

INTRODUCING SDPD's TEEN ALCOHOL AWARENESS PROGRAM

In November of 2015, two members of the San Diego Police Department's Traffic Safety Office came up with an idea. Sergeant Leonard Flake and Officer Mark McCullough thought of a program that would help teenagers, their parents, and new drivers better understand both the physical and financial risks of driving under the influence, social hosts issues (large parties involving alcohol), minors in possession of alcohol, and peer pressure.

The San Diego Police Department was very excited to launch this new program and added an additional member (Officer Emilio Ramirez) to the team. A curriculum was created to not only cover DUI's and other alcohol related offenses, but also includes other factors associated with new drivers. The new program was named Teen Alcohol Awareness Program or "TAAP".

Participants in TAAP first start off with a two hour classroom instruction. The parents remain in the classroom while the teenagers and new drivers are taken to an actual DUI checkpoint for an additional two hours. The teenagers and new drivers get a firsthand look at how the DUI evaluations are done and see the consequences when a person is placed under arrest.

These sessions occur approximately two to three times a month. The San Diego Police Department advertises upcoming TAAP events on social media, Nextdoor.com, and with SAY San Diego. The great success of TAAP has spread all across San Diego County. Many participants come from outside the City of San Diego. The San Diego Police Department has expanded TAAP and is working with other agencies to include the Carlsbad Police Department, San Diego County Juvenile Probation Department, California DMV Safety Office, and UCSD.

Here is just some of the many positive comments that TAAP has received from participants:

- Mary from San Diego said, "This was a very eye opening experience. Both my daughter and I learned a lot from the course."

- John from North County said, "This was well worth staying up for, it's obvious the officer that worked this and the checkpoint cared about what they do."

If you would like more information about the TAAP program, please contact Officer Mark McCullough at (858) 495-7822 or email him at Mmccullough@pd.sandiego.gov.

No police department is large enough to keep a community safe on its own. Effective crime prevention requires the active support of citizens and a partnership between police and the community. The San Diego Police Department is dedicated to developing, building, and maintaining community partnerships throughout the city. Our Community Policing efforts are the foundation of those partnerships.

We accomplish our community policing strategy in a variety of ways but most can be put into four categories:

- I. Community Partnerships – The meetings we have to discuss public safety, crime statistics, and quality of life issues.
- II. Community Involvement – The events we participate in throughout the city to foster community relationships. Our ride-along program is an integral part of this.
- III. Community Outreach – The ways we provide awareness, education, and information to the community about public safety, crime trends, and crime prevention.
- IV. Community Givebacks – The volunteering and charity efforts we participate in inside and outside our normal work hours.

Below highlights many of the ways we have attended and/or participated in community events during the fourth quarter of FY17, April 1, 2017 through June 30, 2017:

I. Community Partnerships:	506
II. Community Involvement :	405
III. Community Outreach:	317

Community Involvement

Volunteer Services – No police department is large enough to keep a community safe on its own. Effective crime prevention requires the active support of citizens and a partnership between police and the community. Community policing is an important foundation of the San Diego Police Department. What makes San Diego's approach to community policing unique is the extent to which the police department has made volunteers an integral component of its program.

The San Diego Police Department is viewed as a leading force in law enforcement innovations occurring across North America. The Department's adult and youth volunteer workforce has approximately 700 members. These volunteers play a vital role in the department's vision to engage the community in a problem solving partnership that will reduce crime and positively affect the quality of life in all communities.

The San Diego Police Department has used volunteers for a wide variety of job assignments for many years. Programs throughout the Department are considered models in volunteerism in the public sector. Volunteers are essential to Department operations. They help provide a level of customer service that could not be achieved by the Department's staff alone. Volunteers represent all segments of society. The variety of functions performed by this police department affords opportunities for people with varied interests and skills. The San Diego Police Department's Volunteers in Policing (VIP) program offers a unique opportunity for citizen volunteers to become actively involved in providing efficient, effective, and responsive service to our community.

The use of volunteers includes Crisis Interventionists, Retired Senior Volunteer Patrols, Volunteers in Policing, Reserve Officers, Police Cadets, and various support staff positions that enhance the organization's effectiveness. This is a result of two decades of change in policing philosophy that has heralded San Diego as a pioneer in many areas of law enforcement.

The San Diego Police Department has a significant resource available in the San Diego community: individuals who are ready, willing, and able to serve as volunteers. In a time of limited financial resources and increasing demands for services, it is important that volunteer opportunities continue to be identified and this resource increasingly utilized.

Currently, The San Diego Police Department has 93 active Crisis Interventionists, 270 RSVPs, 24 Reserve Officers, 73 VIPs, and 55 Cadets. Our RSVPs contributed 26,951 hours this quarter. Crisis Interventionists responded to 157 callouts assisting 908 people, worked 3,292.5 hours, and were on call and prepared to respond for an additional 3,295.5 hours; our Reserve Officers worked a total of 1,511 hours and our VIPs contributed 3,011 hours.

Ride Along Program (123) - The Ride Along Program is a powerful community involvement tool that enables an officer to showcase to citizens who live, work, or go to school in the officer's area of responsibility the daily duties of a police officer. It enables citizens to get a first-hand look at policing and to better understand the role of the police. It increases the opportunity for more effective problem solving, and it enhances mutual understanding and cooperation and leads to an improved police/community relationship.

Community Outreach

Community Recruiting Events (76) - The Recruiting Unit gave presentations on career opportunities as a police officer and dispatcher at 50 community events throughout the City and County.

Community Partnerships

Alternatives to Detention – ATD is for the placement of juvenile misdemeanor offenders into an alternative location other than Juvenile Hall (i.e. cool bed). Representatives are available to respond to the officers' location to conduct an assessment of the juvenile for placement. With parental consent, the juvenile is placed in a home. Juvenile Administration and JST Officers attend these meetings to discuss juvenile issues, placements and laws.

Joint Interagency Meeting (3) – Monthly meetings presented by the Juvenile District Attorney's office. Multiple county law enforcement agencies attend this meeting in order to receive updates on laws regarding juveniles and training on various programs.

Juvenile Justice Coordinating Council – In an effort to ensure coordination and collaboration among the various local agencies serving at-risk youth and young offenders, the JJCPA legislation requires the county Juvenile Justice Coordinating Council (JJCC) to develop and modify the plan. The JJCC is chaired by the county's chief probation officer and its members include representatives of law enforcement and criminal justice agencies, the board of supervisors, social services, education, mental health, and community-based organizations. The JJCC meets periodically to review program progress and evaluation data.

Central Region Safety Environment Workgroup/Live Well San Diego – This work group concentrates on improving the health of residents, ensuring residents are protected from crime and abuse, neighborhoods are safe, communities are resilient to disasters and emergencies and cultivating opportunities for all people to grow, connect and enjoy the highest quality of life. Juvenile Administration attends monthly meetings to advise board and community members on safe practices, crime prevention, and disaster preparation.

Juvenile Diversion – The Juvenile Administration unit works in an ongoing effort with multiple Community Based Organizations. It is designed to bring the latest and most updated Diversion programs to the San Diego Police Department. Diversion is set up for low level offenders to be an alternative to the juvenile justice system.
