Sexual Assault Investigation

San Diego – Today at 10:45 am, San Diego police officers were called to the 9800 block of Caminito Cuadro to investigate a report of a kidnapping. A female stated she had been kidnapped and held against her will. Officers found the adult female victim and obtained a preliminary statement. She was eventually transported to the Northeastern police substation where detectives were able to conduct a detailed interview. Based upon the information received, this incident is not being investigated as a kidnapping. The Sex Crimes Unit was notified and detectives from that unit have taken the lead and are actively investigating this incident.
