K. PARKS AND RECREATION STAFF REPORTS

Mark Moncey, Area Manager, Rancho Penasquitos Area:

Mark reports that they filled vacancies for Grounds Maintenance positions. Getting a lot of graffiti at the skate park. Working with the police to get more patrols.

Jesse DeLille, Center Director, Canyonside Recreation Center:

- Received a piece of mail that was addressed to the rec council, but it looks like it should go to the town council for the fiesta event.
- The kickball class' numbers have gone up. The new rec leader Ron is leading that.
- A new volunteer is thinking of applying as a rec aide.
- New fee schedule is out. The last time the fee schedule was changed was 4 years ago. There is a new opportunity fund to help lower funded areas.
- Jesse is going on paternity leave in August.

Jordan Oden (ACD) reports that the movie in the park event will have games and a DJ.

Rex Cabanas, Center Director, Hilltop Recreation Center: Brian Vaira (ACD) reports on Rex's behalf.

- A few tiles from our roof has slipped and fell. There were no injuries. A work request was submitted to have it looked at and repaired.
- Old rain gutter removed and new gutter installation completed.
- Hilltop's stairwell by the street was tagged. Staff painted it over within a few days.
- Mount Carmel High School had their graduation class picnic. Over 400 students attended. During that time staff had a recruitment booth set up for potential student employees for part time RLI and Rec Aid positions with the City.
- Movie in the park night on 6-25-22. We'll see Encanto at Rolling Hills Park.
- Pictures of Flag Day. About 50 people showed up. The boy scout troops passed out free hot dogs and watermelon to the public.
