San Dieguito River Park: Robin Kaufman

It meets the first Friday of the month, 10:30 a.m. We will need a new person to attend these meetings as David Wilson has stepped down from the Board. Robin Kaufman attended this meeting. It was their last zoom meeting as they have to abide by the City's regulations. They will go back to meeting at San Rafael church on Bernardo Center Drive.

There was a presentation on the gold spotted Oak borer which included how it is impacting the area, symptoms and possible treatments.

Coast to Crest Trails update, which included where there are still gaps. Director Anderson shared a presentation summarizing the status of the Get-to71-Miles CTC Campaign, which is at 88% of the goal. Information on the CTC trail consultant selection procedure was explained, with the final selection scheduled for the December JPA meeting.. Director Anderson also reviewed the CTC gaps and trail options being considered.

There was an update on Surf Cup Sports Activities. Maggie Brown, representative from Friends of the San Dieguito River Valley, reported on the status of code enforcement by the City of San Diego stating that no violation corrections have been made by Surf Cup, and they continue to use the former Milan property for parking in violation of the zoning code.
