

APPLICATION FOR APPOINTMENT TO THE RECREATION COUNCIL WORKING GROUP

Community participation is a key part of building the City of San Diego's future. Boards and committees play an important role in the local democratic process. Members of the public appointed to serve on a City of San Diego board or committee provide Council with a variety of diverse perspectives, specialized skills and expertise specific to the mandate of the public body they serve. The City of San Diego is committed to a fair and equitable recruitment process.

The purpose of the Recreation Council Working Group is to revise Council Policy 700-42, incorporate necessary fiscal changes, and bring the policy into compliance with the City Charter and Municipal Codes. The working group will be comprised of members recommended from City Council, the Park and Recreation Board, and the community.
