To Announce City Heights Youth Job Fair*

- WHAT: News conference to announce a City Heights Youth Job Fair on Saturday, April 20th 10 a.m. to 2 p.m., and to encourage local businesses to participate.
- WHY: With summer near and the school semester winding down, now is the time for San Diego's youth and young adults to begin ramping up their job seeking efforts. Councilwoman Marti Emerald, Supervisor Ron Roberts and jobs experts are teaming up to bring together job seekers and employers at a Youth Resource and Jobs Fair next weekend at the Mid City Gymnasium, 4302 Landis St., 92105. Councilmember Emerald recognizes Council District Nine is home to one of the youngest populations in the city; almost half of the population is under the age of 24. Preparing our young adults now for the workforce is crucial for their future success and for the overall well-being of the community. Through her work with The Coalition to Keep City Heights Youth Safe, Councilmember Emerald hopes to bring jobs to the youth of City Heights. For many, this job fair is the first opportunity to network with future employers and to broaden their horizons. Services offered at the job fair include on-site interviews, résumé assistance, interviewing tips, and ease of access to electronic job applications. The youth fair portion of this event includes performances and raffle prizes.
