COUNCILMEMBER EMERALD INAUGURATES COLINA PARK'S INTERNATIONAL HEALTH FAIR

- When: Saturday, April 27, 11:00am
- Where: Colina de Sol Park, 54th Street and Orange Avenue, San Diego 92115
- What: Colina Park's inaugural International Health Fair
- Who: City Councilmember Marti Emerald
Sakara Tear, Community Engagement Manager, City Heights CDC
- Visuals: Booths staffed by organizations including Somali Family Services, American Red Cross, Environmental Health Coalition, and La Maestra Community Health Centers.
- Why: A groundbreaking International Health Fair will be held in City Heights on April 27 to bring much needed services to San Diego's most ethnically diverse neighborhood. The fair will take place from 10am to 2pm. More than 15 booths will provide free health screenings, health and wellness resources, and a sampling of alternative treatments. Zumba and aerobic classes, plus a variety of children's activities, will round out the event at Colina del Sol Park.
