Councilmember Sherman to Hold State of District 7 Neighborhoods Town Hall

Sherman to Give Update on Neighborhood Efforts at City Hall and Seek Community Input

SAN DIEGO – Councilmember Scott Sherman will be holding a State of the Neighborhood Town Hall in the Navajo Community. This is the third in a series of neighborhood specific town halls that Councilmember Sherman has been hosting. He will give a report on the 2014 legislative session and discuss his goals for the upcoming year. After the update, Sherman will open the meeting to a question and answer session to gain feedback from residents and listen to their concerns.

When: Thursday, March 12th
6:00 PM: Registration period
6:30 PM: Meeting begins

Where: Mission Trails Regional Park – Visitors Center
1 Father Junipero Serra Trail
San Diego, CA 92119

Who: Councilmember Scott Sherman

Why: “In order for me to represent the District 7 community in the best way possible, it is important to hear from the people I represent about the state of their neighborhoods.”– Scott Sherman
