APPROVAL OF THE MINUTES:

MOTION: It was moved/seconded (J. Swanson/R. Broomfield) to approve the minutes from the March meeting. Motion carried 6 ayes, 0 nays, and 0 abstentions.

COMMUNICATIONS/NON-AGENDA PUBLIC COMMENTS:

Walter Zumstein presented a document from the county, document had dollar amount figures. He explained to the RCG board the property was not donated according to the document and he also explained that the property was purchased from a land exchange.

Steve Egger presented some documentations that he says explains how the 28.5 acres was donated to the City in 1945. He also explained that the City of San Diego wanted more property, so the Egger family gave more by land exchange and sold a portion of the land to the City of San Diego.

Johnny Swanson spoke about the conversation held by Mr. Egger and Mr. Zumstein and explained that he would really like to get back to the real topic at hand, which is to name the sports field after Dr. Obed Ferrari. He asked everyone to please refrain from arguing over the name of the park, which is Robert Egger Sr, - South Bay Recreation Center and to have the group refocus on building a plaque in honor of our departed CRG Member Dr. Obed Ferrari.
