

SOLD Screening

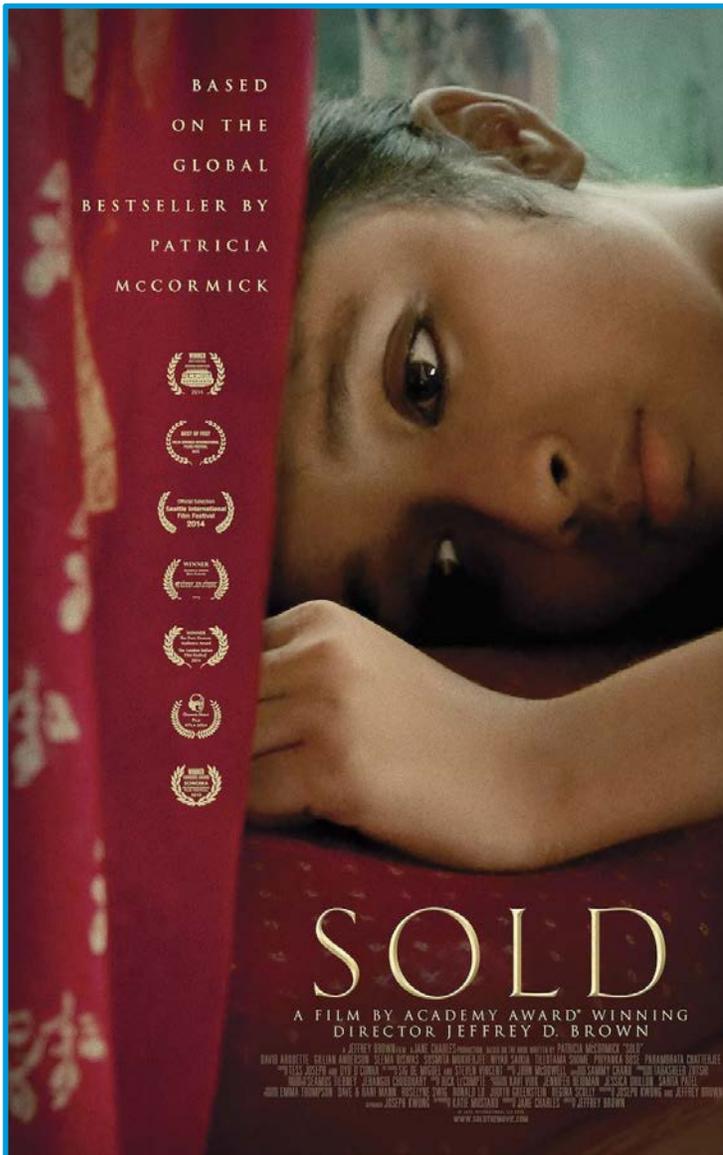

With U.S. Attorney Laura E. Duffy

Speaking on the Link Between Sex-Tourism & Human Trafficking

Thursday

December 1 • 5:30 p.m.

Neil Morgan Auditorium

SOLD, is an educational film adapted from the National Book Award nominee and Quill Award-Winning novel by Patricia McCormick. Based on true stories, SOLD is the story of Lakshmi's journey from a peaceful, rural village in Nepal to the gritty brothels of Kolkata, India. Through one extraordinary girl's story, SOLD illustrates the brutality of child trafficking, a horrifying crime experienced by an estimated 3 million girls every year around the globe.

Free with Reservation
<https://soldscreening.eventbrite.com>

San Diego Central Library
@ Joan A Irwin Jacobs Common
330 Park Blvd, 92101 • 619-236-5800

