San Diego, CA: As the pandemic enters its tenth month, with another stay at home order continuing to cripple small businesses and employees, one local businessman has stepped up to ensure children will have toys for Christmas. Chris Rowe is the Sorrento Valley McDonald's owner & operator.

Chris Rowe's McDonald's location will host Councilmember Chris Cate's Sixth Annual Toys for Tots breakfast. All proceeds from the breakfast will benefit the U. S. Marine Corps Reserve Toys for Tots Program. To date, more than 1,750 toys have been collected from Councilmember Cate's annual Toys for Tots breakfast.

Out of an abundance of caution, this will be a drive thru event. All public health orders will be strictly adhered to. Drop-offs will be contactless, donors will stay in their vehicles, masks are required, and social distance will be maintained.

Each guest is encouraged to bring a new, unwrapped toy. The Sorrento Valley McDonald's is providing a voucher for a complimentary Egg McMuffin or Sausage McMuffin with Egg for all attendees.

"The pandemic has certainly made things look a little different this year, but children need joy and hope now more than ever.
