SPRING ACTIVITIES TO ENJOY!

The City of San Diego is committed to providing an equitable and inclusive environment for all individuals. Consistent with these principles and applicable laws, it is the City's policy not to discriminate on the basis of any protected classification, including age, race, color, creed, physical or mental disability, gender, gender identity, gender expression, genetic information, marital status, medical condition, veteran or military status, national origin, pregnancy (including childbirth, breastfeeding, or related medical conditions), race, traits historically associated with race (including hair texture and protective hairstyles such as braids, locks, and twists), religion, religious belief or observance, religious creed, sex, sex stereotype, sexual orientation, transgender status or transitioning, or any other classification protected by federal, state, or local law (including being perceived or regarded as or associated with any protected classification). If anyone believes they have been discriminated against, they may file a complaint alleging the discrimination with either the City of San Diego, Recreation Department Director at 619-235-1132, or the California Department of Fair Employment and Housing (DFEH) at (800) 959-8275. This information is available in alternative formats upon request.

Independent Contractors vs. Permit Holders

The City of San Diego Parks and Recreation department offers a variety of programs for the youth which are provided through the means of three different sources; in-house programs (run by city staff), contractual programs, and rental programs. Contractual programs consist of independent contractors that have been approved by the City of San Diego as a sponsored program. Rental programs are commercial companies that rent out the facility to offer their programs and activities for the community. Please see below for specified requirements:

Requirements for Independent Contractors*

All contractors, subcontractors and volunteers are fingerprinted through the City of San Diego Live Scan process.

- à Contractors provide Worker's Compensation coverage for all employees.
- à All Contractors have a business license and carry insurance.
- à City staff handles all registration for the program.

Requirements for Permit Holders/Rental Programs

- à Must provide proof of insurance plus endorsement page(s)
- à Must provide own advertisement for program
- à Handles all registration for their programs
- à Rental programs are NOT required to submit proof of fingerprinting for their coaches or instructors.

Independent Contractor programs are identified with *

Permit Holders/Rentals are identified with ***
