

THE CITY OF SAN DIEGO

September 18, 2007

Honorable Mayor and Members of the City Council
City of San Diego, California

AUDIT OF ACCOUNTS OF GAEL STRACK
FORMER DEPARTMENT DIRECTOR, FAMILY JUSTICE CENTER

In accordance with the requirements of Article VII, Section 111 of the City Charter, the Auditor and Comptroller staff performed a close-out audit due to the May 18, 2007 resignation of Gael Strack, former Department Director of the Family Justice Center. During our examination we reviewed financial records to verify that Ms. Strack had no outstanding debts to the City. Financial records reviewed included payroll, travel advances, and procurement card activity. Additionally, audit staff has verified that system access and payment approval authority was revoked.

Based on our examination, Ms. Strack had no outstanding debt to the City and nothing came to our attention requiring further review.

The International Standards for the Professional Practice of Internal Auditing, section 1130 - Impairment to Independence or Objectivity, states that if independence or objectivity is impaired in fact or appearance, the details of the impairment should be disclosed to appropriate parties. The accuracy of Ms. Strack's final payroll payment was reviewed as part of this close-out audit. As the former Payroll Manager, the Interim Internal Auditor was responsible for payroll transactions and is not independent for this portion of the close-out audit. However, an independent auditor did review the payroll transaction for accuracy.

Respectfully submitted,

Kyle Elser
Interim Internal Auditor
