

The City of SANDIEGO

Buildings that enclose and define space Character and design of the space Activation how the space is used

Characteristics of Public Realm

Local Context Activation Adaptable Social Well-being Connectivity Sustainable Iconic

Components of Public Realm

Furnishing Art Lighting Play Waste Bins Hard & Soft Scapes Trees & Planting Wayfinding

Types of Public Realm

Spaces under Trolley Streetscapes Linear Parks Paseos Connective Links Office Campus Parking Lots Mixed-Use Development

We Want to Hear From You!

What public space that you have visited is most memorable to you and what made it memorable?

What is your favorite public space in the Community?

What other types of public spaces would you like to see in the Community?

Submit your examples of urban design in the public realm by email to KatieW@sandiego.gov or by mail to Katie Witherspoon, 9485 Aero Drive, San Diego, CA 92123

www.planuniversity.org