District 4 Gets Great Budget News:
 New Senior Center & Opens New Skyline Hills Library

This week, my council colleagues and I unanimously approved the Fiscal Year 2017 Budget that restores staffing and expands city services and projects. At the construction site of the Skyline Hills Branch Library, Mayor Faulconer, my fellow Council Colleagues and I took part in the Fiscal Year 2017 Budget Signing Ceremony.

City and District 4 budget highlights include:

- $500,000 for the design of the Bay Terraces Senior Center
- $100,000 for operational support at the new Skyline Hills Branch Library
- $500,000 for the Teen Technology Center at the Valencia Park/Malcolm X Library
- $400,000 for Earned Sick Leave and Minimum Wage Ordinance Administration and Enforcement after a 63% voter approval in the primary election
- $4 million for police recruitment and retention
- $109 million for street repair

As the Chair of the Economic Development and Intergovernmental Relations, I know that this approved budget is a step in the right direction. I will continue to fight for the residents in District 4 because every community deserves to have the resources essential to a quality life.
