Special Council Meeting on Affordable Housing & Housing Affordability on Monday, July 24th

On Monday, July 24th, I will convene a Special Meeting on Affordable Housing and Housing Affordability to discuss and take action on:

- Informational reports from the San Diego Housing Commission, the Mayor's Office and Civic San Diego regarding programs and efforts to address housing
- City of San Diego's Municipal Code and Local Coastal Program to expand and improve the City's affordable housing, projects and sustainable building development regulations
- Land Development Code and the Local Coastal Program to modify the companion unit regulations

The high cost of housing is one of our most critical and pressing issues.

We are seeing home prices and the cost of rent continue to rise at a much faster rate than wages in San Diego. This is impacting the quality of life for many San Diegans and making it difficult for many families to find an affordable home. If they are fortunate to find an affordable place to live in, it is more often than not located very far from their place of work.

This issue does not only affect homebuyers or renters, it is also creating a lot of concerns for our economy. This is a priority issue for the entire City Council and I am looking forward to also hearing from many others including Mayor Faulconer, Supervisor Roberts, California Senator Hueso, Housing You Matters, Build Better San Diego, and the Housing Federation for their perspectives, needs, ideas, and solutions to help get us to where we need to be.
